SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and/or participate in a sex offender treatment/and or mental health treatment program arranged by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to testing; such as polygraph, and/or any other testing available at the time of his release. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment, and sign any necessary release form required to obtain the records, imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant shall be required to submit to an initial polygraph examination and subsequent maintenance testing intervals to be determined by the probation office to assist in treatment planning and case monitoring and as a means to ensure that he is in compliance with the requirements of his supervision or treatment program. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered, by means of co-payment, based on his ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

The defendant shall not engage in a specified occupation, business, or profession bearing a reasonable direct relationship to the conduct constituting the offense. Specifically, the defendant shall not work with children under the age of 18, or hold a job that gives him/her authority over potential victims, gives him/her access to vulnerable populations or places him/her in setting near a school or playground. Any employment must be notified in advance and the Probation Officer will make an assessment of the job placement and set employment restrictions based on the Sex Offender Management Procedures Manual. The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer.

The defendant shall not reside, be in the company, date or socialize with a child or children below the ages of 18, unless previously approved by the U.S. Probation Officer and after a third party risk has been duly signed.

The defendant shall have no personal contact with the victim and/or minors under the age of 18, through mail, letters, telephone, communication, audio or visual, computer, electronic devices, visits, social networking sites, or third parties, unless approved in advanced by the U.S. Probation Officer. The only exception in this condition relies in the incidental contact in normal commercial life with minors.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects (as defined in Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1030(e) (1)), to search at any time, with our without a warrant, by the probation officer, and if necessary, with the assistance of any other law enforcement officer (in the lawful discharge of the supervision functions of the probation officer) with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release. The probation officer may seize any electronic device which will be subject to further forensic investigation/analyses. Failure to submit to such a search and seizure, may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupants that their premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state, U.S. Territory or Indian Tribe, sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, carry on a vacation, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.
